A Penny For Your Thoughts

Take Time To Be Present

This past Sunday, we celebrated the First Sunday in Advent. We lit a candle symbolizing Hope, and we spoke about how we can look for and recognize Hope, or signs of the kingdom of God in our lives. In the next three weeks we'll talk about Peace, Joy and Love as we prepare for the celebration of God in our midst — Emmanuel, God with us. Jesus' birth offers us time each year to think about how God chose to enter our world and be present among us.

We worship God who did not choose to stay distant from us and leave us to our own doing, but rather chose to be present, instructing, guiding, giving strength and support, but also transforming and changing us if we allow and are willing. We worship God who for our sake came to live, die, defeat death with life eternal and is coming again.

I know that we think of the second coming of Christ as something in a far off time and place, and it's true that we do not and cannot know when or exactly how the world will end. However, as I spoke about on Sunday, there are signs of God's kingdom every day. The fact that God chose to enter into our world of human flesh tells us that we do not need to wait until the final day to partake in God's kingdom. We can and should experience that kingdom here and now.

The word Advent means "Coming" and traditionally we have used this time as one of preparation. Get ready to celebrate. And just as many of us prepare our homes with decorations or prepare for guests to come or prepare for presents to be given, we are always asked to work on our hearts and lives to receive more and more of God's goodness, love and transformation. But here's the amazing grace that God provides for us, God's love and presence with us WILL COME! Ready or not. God said, it doesn't matter that there was no room at the inn or no place at the table, I am making a new way. And all you need to do is show up. The shepherds were on the hillside just doing their job and the angels came to them. They showed up and received the grace God offers.

So in this Advent, amidst the preparation and work, I encourage you to take time to be present. Just receive the gift that God wants to walk with you. God wants to give you strength, courage, a new beginning and most of all, God wants you to know that you are loved. Come, join us this season and receive God's gift with us!

Blessings and Peace,
Katherine

Thank You!

Dear Asbury Family,

Thank you to everyone for your cards, well wishes and prayers as I had hip replacement surgery and now as I recover. Surgery went well and the healing progresses. I am ever grateful for my Asbury family. — Cathy Sampson

Dear PastOr Katherine and Asbury Members,

Thank you so much for your donation. Your support helps us provide shelter, transitional living and emergency services to homeless women and families. We have been spending a lot of time in the community sharing about Harbor House and our services. It has been empowering to share with others the difference that we make in the community. We are thankful for partnerships we continue to gain. As the seasons change, we will continue to offer warm hospitality at our shelters. We are blessed by our partnership with YOU!

— Chelsea Branley, Executive Director, Harbor House Crisis Shelters

Dear Asbury United Methodist Women,

Thank you for your recent, most-generous donation and your compassion for those who are hurting. The Christmas season brings joy to so many of us, yet, unfortunately this time of year seems very different for our neighbors overcome with despair, anxiety and fear. In communities we serve, the number of people experiencing homelessness is at an all-time high and continues to rise.

Additionally, a staggering 630,000 Minnesotans are facing daily hunger. Your life-changing gift of hope will provide safe shelter, nutritious food and loving care.

— Craig Schmalz, Senior Director of Donor Relations, The Salvation Army

FALL FESTIVAL 2021

Asbury Mitten Tree

Asbury is collecting winter accessories for the children in our area elementary schools. The cold winter months are upon us and many children are unprepared for the outdoors. The children are especially in need of mittens, gloves and socks. This year, we are adding a request for children's winter boots.

We are happy to have the Mitten Tree back this year. It is located in the Narthex and ready for your donations.

Monetary donations for this project are another option that would be greatly appreciated. Please write the check to Asbury and note "Mitten Tree Project" in the memo. Thank you for your generosity and kindness.

UMW Awards

UMW Awards for 2021

The following persons will receive the following awards on UMW Sunday (date TBD) in January to honor all they have done in 2021. All awards have a monetary gift made to Missions in their names.

The persons to be recognized with Special Recognition Awards are Kim Herrig and Debbie Merrick. They have given their time and talents to help provide music each Sunday. They have worked with Phyllis Kruell to select music that will enhance each service and make themselves available each Sunday to support Asbury in worship.

Thank You Awards will be presented to Sue Soder, Pam Perich, and Charles Crumb. Sue makes sure we register each Sunday, guides our candle lighters and acts as our Head Usher. Pam is one of the Tech Team members and also works to provide streaming of funeral services.
